I started off in customer service. I then transitioned into accounting obtaining experience in all departments. I decided I wanted to try Real Estate; did that for 3 years. I then went back into accounting for a few more years. I realized I needed a more lively career and tried property management. I have been doing this for 7 years and love it.

I would love to travel to Italy & Bora Bora.

Tell us something about you that might surprise your neighbors?

I grew up in Hong Kong from second to 6th grade. I got to travel to some amazing places at a young age. I am truly grateful to my parents for that experience.
