Tell us briefly about your career history

I was an Army brat, traveling all over the world every two years. I still have friends that I met 60 years ago. When I moved back to the states, after high school, I received my BA in nursing and later on received my masters in maternal and child health. I was married for 46 years to the most wonderful man on earth. He passed almost 7 years ago, and I have had to learn to navigate life without him. I moved from Cypress to The Gallery to be closer to my daughter and her family.
